

e-qui-nox

Barbara Riegel Bend
Beth Dorsey
Michaela Mahady

August 24-September 30

Reception: Friday, September 22 at 6-8pm

In science, an equinox is a day with equal amounts of day and night. Spiritually, the equinoxes signify the cycle of life and the opportunity of rebirth. As we approach the Autumnal Equinox, the ArtReach galleries will feature artwork that show balance and symmetry (monoprints by Beth Dorsey), a rebirth of materials and a connection to nature (fiber sculptures by Barbara Riegel Bend), and the seasonal cycle of nature (vestments by Michaela Mahady).

Gallery Hours

Wednesdays - Fridays 10am - 4pm
Saturdays 12pm - 4pm

ArtReach St. Croix

224 North 4th Street, Stillwater MN
(651) 439-1465
www.artreachstcroix.org
www.stcroixsplash.org

*e-qui-nox is an event of Take Me to the River.
Learn more at TakeMeToTheRiver.info.*