

ArtReach St. Croix 2023 Call for Exhibiting Artists for Juried Exhibitions

ArtReach St. Croix, a nonprofit regional artist organization serving the St. Croix Valley, is seeking submissions from artists interested in exhibiting their work in our gallery space. Selected artists will be combined to create small group exhibitions (typically 3-4 artists) that run for 6 weeks beginning in January 2024.

All forms of creative work will be considered. All two- and three- dimensional media, subject matters and styles are welcome including—but not limited to—painting, textile, printmaking, mixed media, photography, ceramics, sculpture, glass, jewelry and book arts. Artists living and/or working in the Lower St. Croix Valley in Minnesota and Wisconsin are especially encouraged to submit applications.

ArtReach St. Croix strives to provide a barrier-free application process. As such, applications will be accepted by mail, in-person, by email or through the online application form found at artreachstcroix.org. If you have questions or concerns about the application process, ArtReach staff can provide coaching about application elements like artwork photography, selecting a body of work or writing an artist statement. If you have any questions, technical difficulties or would like to inquire about waiving the application fee, please contact Syndie at syndie@artreachstcroix.org or call 651-439-1465.

All entries will be reviewed by a jury comprised of members of ArtReach St. Croix's visual arts committee, staff and a guest juror.

Application forms are available at ArtReach St. Croix, 224 N. 4th Street, Stillwater, MN 55082 during gallery hours or online at artreachstcroix.org. Complete applications are due Monday, April 10, 2023.
