

Mobile Art Gallery Coordinator

This mobile art venue is hitting the road again this summer and fall. ArtReach St. Croix is looking for a dependable, energetic and friendly host to staff the Mobile Art Gallery and coordinate volunteers to do the same. This is a great fit for an artist, mature student, or other community activist.

The successful Mobile Art Gallery Coordinator will be a self-starter with the ability to work independently and as part of a team. Primary responsibilities include:

- 1) Represent ArtReach and the arts in the St. Croix Valley at parks and community events.
- 2) Engage the public with this mobile, outdoor art space.
- 3) Communicate with small team of Mobile Art Gallery staff, volunteers and location hosts.
- 4) Move artwork, set-up, tear-down and secure the mobile venue at locations around the Valley. Towing will be done by another person.
- 5) Regularly communicating via text, emails and social media.

Running the Mobile Art Gallery does not take a lot of specific knowledge, but it does take a high-level of comfort with public engagement and enthusiasm for the arts in the St. Croix Valley.

- Experience working with social media necessary,
- Must have excellent interpersonal skills as well as attention to detail and follow-through,
- Ability to problem solve in diverse environments,
- Must be highly dependable, friendly, professional and able to work effectively in a small, nimble nonprofit setting.

Eight to sixteen hours per week at $15/hour. Mid-May start with hours through mid-October. Most events take place on evenings and weekends.

To apply send a letter of interest and resume to Heather Rutledge by Monday, April 7 to: heather@artreachstcroix.org